

Candidate's Interview Rejection Email

Subject: We are Sorry!

Dear Mr. / Mrs. [mention Candidate's Last Name],

It was a great pleasure meeting you and having a detailed discussion with you about the job position of [mention Job Position/Role]. Thanks a lot for showing up for the interview. Our company appreciates your interest in the position and we are impressed with your educational background and qualifications.

However, for the time being, our recruitment team has decided to move forward with other applicants whose technical skills and experience match our criteria. So, I have to inform you that your application for the job is rejected at this time.

Again, we really appreciate your interest in our company. We hope that you will stay in touch with our company for any future job opening of your interest. To stay updated in this regard, make sure to visit our company's official website here [mention Website Link].

Best of Luck!

Sincerely,

[Sender's Name]

[Sender's Designation]

[Contact Number]